JUDGMENT

The learned Government Pleader, on instructions, submits that the application of the petitioner for temporary permit would be taken up and considered by the competent authority after obtaining the necessary reports. This is recorded and this writ petition is disposed of directing that the said application shall be considered and disposed of by the respondent or by placing the same before the Regional Transport Authority in the event of the respondent being incompetent to decide finally on the application of the petitioner. Final decision shall be taken within an outer limit of three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this judgment.
